FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Gilles Clement Gallery announces participation in inaugural Philadelphia Fine Art Fair April 4-7, 2019

GREENWICH, CT (February 25, 2019) - Gilles Clement Gallery is pleased to announce their participation in the inaugural Philadelphia Fine Art Fair, to be held at the 23rd Street Armory, April 4-7, 2019. Gilles Clement Gallery is one of 35 elite galleries chosen to be part of the launch of this new modern and contemporary art fair.

The gallery will occupy booth 119 and will feature artists Aspencrow (Lithuanian, hyperrealist sculpture); Curtis Cutshaw (Canadian, painting); David Datuna (Georgian, mixed media + optical lenses); Clement Kamena (French, painting/sculpture); Marck (Swiss, video sculpture); Robert Mars (USA, Mixed media + neon); Charles Matton (French, multimedia sculpture); Devorah Sperber (USA, thread spool installation) and Tran$parent (money art, USA).

As a special highlight, NY-based artist David Datuna's monumental (6' x 11.5') USA flag piece, Viewpoint of Billions will be prominently displayed adjacent to the original 'first flag' to represent the 13 colonies, permanently housed at the Armory museum, inviting engagement with scenes from the American history and its iconic emblem. The signature technique Datana's work is a network of positive and negative optical lenses suspended over a large-scale layered, collaged and painted image. The mixed media palette includes photography, newspaper and magazine clippings, paint and color. Focused on the convergence of art and social consciousness, and exploring the sources and meaning of cultural identity from unique points of view, Datuna's work, with its political, cultural and commercial commentary on the human collective consciousness, finds an ideal host in the City of Brotherly Love, at the Philadelphia Fine Art Fair.
